Resume' Packet Instructions

1. Fill out the top section of the resume' template with your name, address, telephone, number, and e-mail address (optional)
2. If one chooses, they may write an objective on their resume'. The Objective is the clearly defined purpose of the resume'. The objective might be as simple as "Full-Time Employment". It might be more specific such as including the position or type of work a person intends on obtaining such as "Full-Time Line Cook Position". The objective could also be fancy and state something such as, "To obtain a full-time position with the opportunity to utilize my skills and experience."
3. Next, choose eight (8) skills from the Transferable Skills list. After choosing 8 skills please write them in the skills section on the resume' template. Capitalize each skill and put a comma between each skill as well.
4. Work History is next. In this section there is space provided for information from two jobs. On the top line write down the name of the position, to the right of that the client will write down the name of the company/outfit or person for whom they worked. To the right of the company name the client will write down the year or years that they held the job. Below are two examples:

Dishwasher/Busser, Wild River Pizza, 2011-2016
or
Roofer, Blesser Built Roofing, 2012
5. The next part of the Work History section is labeled with numbers 1, 2, and 3. This is the space where a client may write down three (3) specific job duties for each position/job that they choose to list. There are two pages of examples of job duties that may be referenced.
6. The final section of the resume' template is the Education/Certification section. In this section each client will list any current valid certifications that they hold. These might include the Food Handlers Card, National Career Readiness Certificate (NCRC), and Flaggers Certification. If a client possesses a G.E.D., high school diploma, or any type of college degree they should list these at the top of the Education/Certification section.
